OCTOBER 20, 2024 29TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

29th Sunday in ordinary Time B
 Today the Holy Mother Church invites us to reflect on our personal response to the mission of Christ. It is a call to revitalize our faith and rededicate ourselves to Christ. Today's gospel is an account of the petition of James and John, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you. Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left". This was a very ambitious request. However, Christ simply responded, by reminding them of the implication of their request. "Can you drink the chalice I am going to drink? Of course, they responded, "We can".
 So, through his dialogue with his disciples, Jesus opens our eyes to the realities ahead of us. By asking them: "Can you drink the cup that I must drink or be baptized with the baptism with which I must be baptized" Jesus reminds us of the challenges ahead of us.
 Today, Jesus wants each one of us to know through this gospel reading that, mission is service, and sacrifice rendered in love for the salvation of all nations. This love comes with patience and docility to the Will of God. It begins by transforming us into a great instrument for the salvation of others. So, today Christ teaches us that to be great in his Kingdom is to be ready to serve and to make sacrifice for others. Through service and sacrifice, we shall attain our own salvation. By liberating others, we shall liberate ourselves. By giving peace to others, we shall find our own peace, and by identifying with others Christ identifies with us.
Fr. Sylvester.

In the daily routine of family life, power struggles seem unavoidable. Whenever two or more people live together, there will be occasions of disagreement and attempts to exert influence over each other. Today's Gospel can be an invitation to consider how authority is exercised in your household. There is a temptation to exercise our authority in ways that show our power over others. Especially when conflicts emerge, many of us rely upon the power we believe our role gives to us. Jesus teaches us that there is a more persuasive form of leadership. In these daily challenges we have the opportunity to practice and teach the kind of service and leadership Jesus modeled for us in his ministry and in his passion and death.

As you gather as a family, invite family members to participate in a role play in which family roles are reversed. For example, you might assign children the role of parents putting their children to bed with parents acting like the children. Or you may have them role play parents asking for cooperation from children to clean up the family room. When the role play is finished, ask if it was an accurate picture of how this situation usually plays out in your household. Does everyone cooperate when asked? What happens when someone doesn't cooperate? How are the conflicts that emerge resolved? Observe that conflicts based on power struggles in situations such as these seem unavoidable in family life. In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches how Christians are to show their authority over others. Read together today's Gospel, Mark 10:35-45. After reading the Gospel, talk with your family about Jesus' unique message to his disciples about how they are to exercise authority. Talk about ways in which you might apply Jesus' words in your family life. Conclude by praying we may receive honor in God's eyes by learning to serve others in love. Pray together the Peace Prayer of Saint Francis.

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace: where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; where there is sadness, joy.

□ divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love. For it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.
